Listing of Claims:

What is claimed is:

1. (currently amended) A disposable diaper comprising:
a diaper body having an outer surface;
a first layer secured to the diaper body;
a second layer having an interior surface secured to the diaper body to form a pocket between the first and second layer;
and
a means for sealing the pocket for containing waste and odor on an exterior surface of the second layer.
2. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 1 wherein the first layer and the second layer are waterproof.
3. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 1 wherein the sealing means is a tape strip attached to a first surface of the second layer.
4. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 1 wherein the tape strip has a releasable protective facing.
5. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 1 wherein the sealing means is an interlocking closure.

6. (currently amended) A method for disposing of a diaper, comprising the steps of:
providing a diaper body having an outer surface pocket formed on the outer surface of the diaper body;
rolling the diaper body inwardly toward the pocket;
inverting the pocket to receive the diaper body; and sealing the pocket to enclose the diaper body to form an airtight seal.

7. (currently amended) A disposable diaper comprising:
a diaper body having an outer surface;
a layer secured to the diaper body to form a pocket between the layer and the outer surface; and a means for sealing the pocket for containing waste and odor such that when the pocket is inverted the means for sealing forms an airtight seal.

8. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 7 wherein the layer is waterproof.

9. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 7 wherein the sealing means is a tape strip attached to a first surface of the layer.

10. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 9 wherein the tape strip has a releasable protective facing.

11. (original) The disposable diaper of claim 7 wherein the sealing means is an interlocking closure attached.
